Yellow warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Fri 21 Feb 2020 and
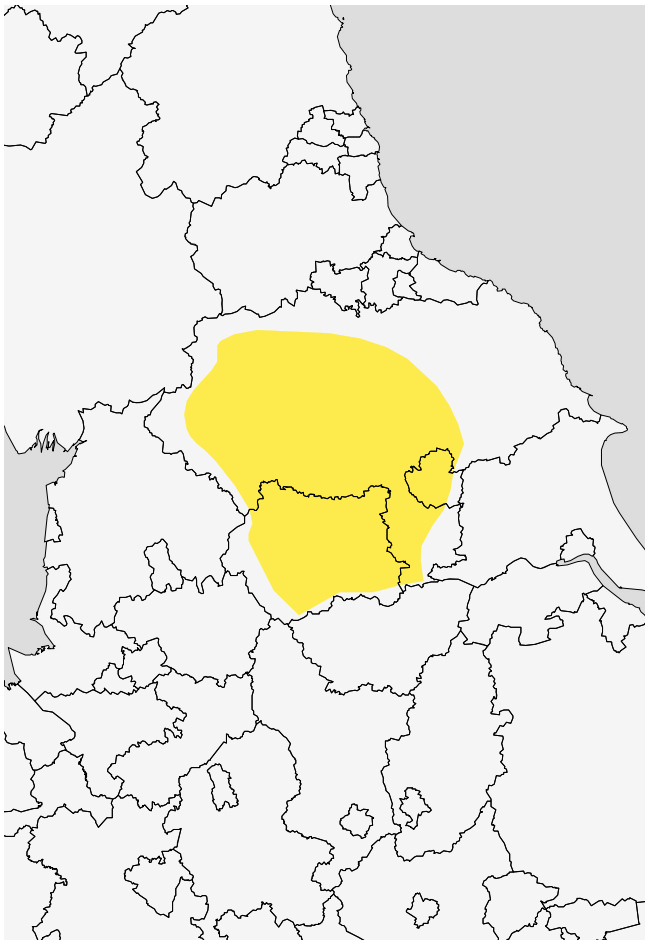
06:00 Sat 22 Feb 2020



Persistent rain, heavy over hills, may lead to flooding and travel disruption during Friday and Friday night.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services

Further details

Further rain is expected across northern England on Friday. Rain is expected to turn persistent and occasionally heavy over parts of the Pennines before clearing early on Saturday. 20-30 mm is likely to fall widely over higher ground with the potential for 60-80 mm in a few places. Given the recent wet conditions this brings a chance of flooding.

Reason for update

Warning updated to bring southern extent of warning area a little further north.
